PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Jennifer has practiced all around the country in such metropolitan areas as Boston, Atlanta, Portland, and Raleigh/Durham. When she moved to Austin in 2007, she started her own firm that supported her for over 8 years before joining the Bommarito Group.

Jennifer has produced award-winning, nationally-recognized, and locally-admired work. Jennifer is well versed in every aspect of interior architecture projects from properly searches, programming needs, design, material, and light fixture selections, documentation, project management and construction observation. Jennifer's outstanding communication and planning skills ensure that clients are delighted by the project outcomes.
